

Writer for OZZfiles.com, an e-pub episode series about a London banker on a mission to save the working class with movies he manifests on TheMovieManifest.com. To manifest, John also brings skills in strategic planning and moviemaking.

---

Strategic Planner

John completed a Strategic Plan for Aero Recip, Canada's largest aviation piston engine overhaul and repair facility. The plan enabled leadership to prioritize and implement a long list of goals established to address long-standing challenges.

Movie Maker

John produced and wrote a prototype film series for Aero Recp called Sky Scrapin. He also wrote & performed its soundtrack:

<https://aerorecip.com/about-us/our-history/>

John was Co-Producer of The Rhino Brothers, an award winning feature length movie about hockey. The Rhino Brothers won best feature at WorldFest and the Leo Award for Best Actress.

John was Producer / Writer/ Director of The Freedom To Play, a recruitment tool for the Winnipeg Rifles Football Club that highlighted how The Royal Winnipeg Rifle Regiment enabled our freedoms. John partnered with Rifles co-Founder, James Ladd.

Writer

John is the writer behind the e-pub episode series, TheMovieManifest.com. He has written all the books, and tailors them to current circumstances, one episode at a time. The series is a true story fictionalized about a business he owned, which was allegedly robbed by a bank allegedly managing the operating account, which wasn't managed well at all.

John also leveraged his planning and writing skills to set up entertainment businesses including The Purple Onion Cabaret, a Vancouver based jazz funk club, which generated over two million dollars in revenue in only its first year.

---