
Future Map CEO is a business-minded, fiction-based experience facilitated by CEO's to augment the company's strategic plan execution strategies.

Future Map CEO enables the CEO to integrate strategic priorities into a fiction about a City of London Square Mile Bank Executive on a mission to build the greatest bank in the world by making us characters in his story.

Future Map CEO Is For Creative CEO's

Creative CEO's see value in doing things differently in order to execute their strategic plan. Creative CEO's see value in different perspectives shared by people inside and outside the boardroom who are affected by the CEO's strategic plan. Creative CEO's see value in refining the big picture because it's the big picture that moves the details forward.

Creative CEO's open the door to creativity with Future Map CEO.

Project Framework – Three Key Elements

Future Map CEO contains three creative outreach elements mapped once the CEO establishes key strategic plan elements for execution. The CEO is responsible for outreach budgets, which are established through the mapping process. OZZbox3.com is a Minimum Viable Product (MVP).
