
OZZ MEDIA CORP is the Future Company:

We help build the future, and our storytelling methodology makes sure everyone has an opportunity to be a character in it. We build it inside and outside the boardroom, and inside and outside the company. We build it so both sides can succeed. Our mission is to build the future with both sides. Our vision to build it is the future portal at OZZbox3.com

OZZbox3.com, An Evolving Platform

The future on the portal evolves with three tools to help build it:

1. Future Books - The future on the portal gets going with the Future Book Series, free brief e-Books about a banker on a mission to build this kind of future.
2. Future Stage - The future expands as OZZbox3.com expands from OZZfiles.com, TheirMedia.com, and OZZmediaCorp.com, each helping evolve the platform
3. Future Films - The future finds the screen with Future Films, brief movies with vision that not only show both sides building, but both sides refining it.

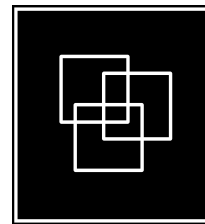

OZZ Bridge – The Segue To The Future

The future gets funded with OZZ Bridge, a creative consulting program delivered to company directors to remove strategic blockages in exchange for investments in the future. OZZ Bridge is about answers outside the boardroom making answers inside clearer. OZZ Bridge is about making the future possible for both sides by including everyone else.

MVP:

OZZbox3.com is a Minimum Viable Product (MVP), which means its value expands as both sides go behind the screens to be part of our story.

OZZbox3.com is the future portal.
