
OZZ Bridge Is:

OZZ Bridge is a creative consulting program delivered to company directors to remove barriers to the company's strategic plan. Solutions to overcome these barriers are collected from OZZ Followers at OZZbox3.com, The Future Portal. The mission of OZZ MEDIA CORP, producer of OZZbox3.com, is to build a future for both sides. Solutions serve to bind leaders with followers, aligning them around their strategic plan and a common future.

Preparing For Outreach:

We work with company directors to build the company's strategic narrative by identifying blockages to the company's strategic plan and scripting them into the OZZ fictionalized true story. OZZ story is about a banker on a mission to build the future for both sides. Company Directors are given the option to be featured in the story. After adapting narratives into OZZbox3.com, outreach occurs. Data is collected and collated.
