
OZZ Media Corp is the producer behind the fix-it system. The company's mission is to fix the system with fiction first. The company's vision is a fix-it system that fixes systemic issues holding trust back. The company's main goal is to get everyone building it with a true fiction that truly guides us. Register for Free Books – Join To Build

OZZ Media Corp was incorporated on April 15th, 2003, serving clients to help them add structure to shape company-wide systems through formal and informal strategic planning, through media production of conventional and unconventional media, and through formal and informal data gathering outreach campaigns. Clients include a highly regulated, family-owned aviation company called Aero Recip Canada Ltd, GE Capital Financial Solutions, and Protegra, Inc, an enterprise software developer specializing in financial services.

OZZbox3.com – The Fiction Fix

Concurrently with engagements, OZZ Founder John Pineau has developed OZZbox3.com, the fix-it system to fix the system with fiction first. John is currently the sole strategist for its planning and development.

Fix the system with fiction first at
OZZbox3.com